The United States District Court convenes in Greenville next Tuesday.

Mayor Tolly has been quite sick the past week, but is able to be out again.

Mrs. W. C. Power and daughter, Miss Julia, visited friends in Sumter last week.

Miss Rosa Hamlin, of Abbeville, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Will. Brisset, in this city.

Mrs. L. A. McSmith has gone to Greenwood, S. C., where she will probably remain two or three weeks.

Mrs. W. S. Lee and little daughter, who have been visiting relatives in Lancaster, S. C., returned home last Friday.

The sportsmen of this section will make the best of their opportunities from now until the 1st of April, when the game law goes into effect.

Court finished its business last Friday evening and adjourned. Judge Aldrich dispatches business rapidly and is a model Judge in every respect.

The Cadets of the P. M. I. are now displaying a small Cuban flag under the big United States flag that floats from the flag staff on the Institute grounds.

"The gentle spring-time, when the young man's fancy highly turns to thoughts of love" will soon be here and then look out for picnics and pretty girls in white.

The old Jail building was sold at public outcry last Saturday and was purchased by J. S. Fowler for $350.00, who will tear it down at once. Sheriff Green moved into the new Jail yesterday.

All persons interested in the building of a Baptist Church near Roberts, S. C., are requested to meet at the residence of W. H. Shearer on the afternoon of the fourth Sunday, 27th inst., at 3 o'clock.

We invite your attention to the advertisement of J. T. Ligon & Co., shoe dealers. This firm proposes to shoe the entire family free of cost, of the customer who spends the most dollars with them this year.

There will be a meeting at Sandy Springs next Saturday evening, 12th inst., at 7 o'clock, and all the citizens of that section are urged to attend. The purpose of the meeting is to take steps to establish a High School.

All Confederate Veterans in the vicinity of Cooke, Corner Township, are requested to meet there on Saturday, the 19th of March, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a Camp of the United Confederate Veterans.

Mr. N. O. Farmer, of Fork Township, had the misfortune to lose a good tenant house and outbuilding, together with a large supply of corn and fodder, on Sunday last. The house was occupied by Mr. Robt. Stevens, and it is thought the origin was incendiary.

The Abbeville Medium of the 3rd inst. says: "Rev. J. N. H. Sumner lectured to the Seminary Students of Erskine College last Thursday. Everybody was very much pleased with Mr. Sumner's lecture and sermon in the morning. It is said to have been the best this season."

Rev. V. I. Masters, the genial traveling agent of the Baptist Courier, has been spending a few days in this section, and on Monday was a welcome visitor to our sanetum. The Courier is one of the best religious papers published in this country and should be a visitor to every Baptist home.

Superintendent of Education Attaway announces the following as successful in the recent teachers' examination: 1st grade—Nos. 20, 38, 112, 113, 126, 127, 147, 181; 2nd grade, class A.—Nos. 8, 29, 35, 39, 52, 100, 109, 123, 129; 2nd grade, class B.—Nos. 7, 11, 15, 40, 44, 51, 108, 111, 130. A few more papers are to pass on.

Mrs. Newton Oats died at her home in Brushy Creek Township on Friday night the 25th ult., and was buried from Corinth Church on Sunday afternoon, the obsequies being conducted by Rev. L. T. Weldon. The deceased was a most excellent woman, a devoted Christian and a member of Easy Baptist Church—Liberty Beacon.

The Rough and Ready Firemen held their annual meeting on Tuesday evening, 1st inst., and elected the following officers to serve the ensuing year: President, Barbers Frazier; Vice President, William Oliver; Treasurer, John Payton; Secretary, John Butler. The Company is in good condition and always ready to do good work at a fire.

Walhalla was visited last night by a serious conflagration, the Brennecker house and an adjoining dwelling going up in smoke, a total loss of building and furniture. Origin unknown. Mr. Heiman Busch, one of the firemen, was struck on the head by a falling beam from the roof and his skull fractured. Chances for his recovery are very slight.

Capt. E. T. Cooley died at his home in Martin Township yesterday (Tuesday) after a long and lingering debility of nervous prostration and old age. He was born at Cooley's Bridge on March 14, 1818, and therefore on his next birthday he would have been eighty years of age. His remains will be interred in the Rice graveyard this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

When in Yorkville recently we saw the Mongolian Pheasant at Mr. Glenn's. It is a beautiful bird, a little bit smaller than the guinea fowl, and very cute. It is an excellent bird for table use. We notice that the State of Ohio has a pheasant farm and is spending thousands of dollars in stocking the different Counties of the State with them. By the State game laws the birds can not be molested until November, 1900. The hen pheasant lays eighty-nine eggs every season. It would pay South Carolina to try it.—A. R. Presbyterian.

Two brothers married sisters and lived in the same house, and in course of time a girl was born to each of them, making six in the family. But some wag declared there were 16 of them and upon being asked to name them he wrote as follows: "Two fathers, two mothers, two brothers, two sisters, two aunts, two uncles, two cousins, two nieces, making a total of sixteen."

Mr. R. S. Hill was over from Anderson, S. C., on business Tuesday. He was lavish in praise of the great improvements going on in beautiful Hartwell, and as an earnest of his friendly interest and appreciation, without a hint of solicitation, wrote a bank check for a liberal amount in favor of the new Methodist house of worship. Hart County is proud to claim Mr. Hill as a native to the manner born.—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

Miss Zula Brock, of South Carolina, the beautiful and accomplished principal of the music department of the Lowndesville Academy, spent several days with friends in the city last week. Miss Brock was maid of honor in the Pressley-Clintons marriage and came over with the happy wedding. By her grace and rare culture she made many friends here who will gladly welcome her return again.—Elberton (Ga.) Star.

Mrs. Hannah May, wife of the late Tucker W. May, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. H. B. Leppard, in St. Clair County, Ala., on Saturday, February 26th, aged 80 years. Mrs. May was born and reared and spent nearly all her life in the First Creek Church neighborhood. She was a twin sister of the late Samuel Hall, and was the last of twelve children. She had long been a member of the Baptist Church, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, who will be pained to hear of her death. Four children survive her.

Miss Melinda Dunlap died at her home in Hill Township last Saturday morning of pneumonia, after an illness of one week. She was about 50 years of age, and a daughter of Matthew and Annie Dunlap, both of whom preceded her to the grave. She had long been a devoted member of Good Hope Presbyterian Church, and was greatly admired by her friends. On Sunday afternoon her remains were interred in the Good Hope Churchyard, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. R. C. Ligon. She leaves three brothers and five sisters.

A horrible accident occurred at Pelzer last Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock, in which Mrs. L. P. Bell lost her life. It seems that Mrs. Bell was alone at home and when her daughter, who teaches school, left her at noon she was perfectly well, but on her return from school in the afternoon she found her mother's body lying in the fire, where she had fallen some time before that, burned to a crisp. Just how the accident occurred is a mystery. Some think that she was overcome with heart failure. She was a widow and leaves two daughters besides many friends to mourn her untimely and terrible death.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan will lecture at Erskine College, Due West, S. C., next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and he will be greeted by a tremendous crowd from all parts of the State. The Southern Railway will sell round trip tickets from all points on the C. & G. R. R. at the rate of 4 cents a mile. Passengers can go down on the regular passenger train Thursday morning, and return that evening on a special train, which will run from Donalds through to Walhalla, leaving the former place about 7 p. m., after the lecture of Mr. Bryan. This will be a fine opportunity for the citizens of this section who may desire to hear this distinguished gentleman.

The Westminster correspondent of the Knoxville Courier says: "It is not often that a pastor's heart is made glad at this season of the year, but the other morning as Rev. D. W. Hiott returned home from a walk out in town his heart was made glad. He was walking quite early and the weather was very cold. Passing the establishment of a clever, generous hearted merchant, he was seen to be without an overcoat. The package that was opened at the parsonage immediately thereafter was an elegant overcoat, bearing the compliments of the giver, Mr. J. S. Carter. Such gifts are not only appreciated for their worth, but they have a tendency to warm a preacher spiritually as well as bodily."

The Recital at the Opera House last Friday night, by the piano pupils of Miss Lizzie Cornish, drew a fair audience notwithstanding the inclement weather. Each pupil showed careful training and satisfactory advancement since last term. The solo medal was won by Eva Mayfield, 2nd grade, 2nd section, and was presented by Prof. McClure with appropriate remarks. The enjoyment of the occasion was enhanced by Mr. Silverman's exquisite rendition of a selection from Trovatore. It is seldom we have the privilege of hearing a violin tone poem without piano accompaniment. In response to an encore he gave a staccato polka. Jim Craig was as usual inimitable in his comic song, "My gal cindy," words and music composed by Miss L. zzie Cornish.

The meeting of the Cotton Growers Protective Association met in O'Donnell's hall Monday last with vice president, Dr. C. V. Barnes, presiding. L. E. Norrco was elected secretary pro tem. The attendance was small but the meeting proved exceedingly interesting. The matter of building a warehouse was exhaustively discussed, and those present were unanimous in the opinion that the building of a warehouse for the storage of cotton is the proper thing to do, and that immediate steps should be taken to that end. Other cities have decided upon this plan and work has begun. Charlotte, N. C., has already erected a warehouse and have several thousand bales now stored by farmers. Co-operation in the reduction of acreage cannot be had, and the warehouse plan is the only one which puts the farmer in a position to hold his cotton until it suits him to sell it. It was unanimously agreed to invite every farmer in the County to meet at Anderson Thursday, March the 17th inst., (which is the third Thursday in this month) at 11 o'clock. There will be several good speeches on the warehouse plan and such other questions discussed as the Association may decide upon. This meeting will be of vital importance to every farmer and a rousing meeting is requested.

The Williamston correspondent of the Greenville News, under date of the 1th inst., says: "A shooting scrape occurred three miles in the country this afternoon in which three white men were seriously wounded. A Negro named Welborn Acker had been cutting timber from W. H. Helman's lands. Mr. Helman informed him that he must pay for the damage he had sustained. This seemed to arouse Acker's wrath who swore vengeance against Helman and his family. This happened several days ago. This afternoon Acker and another Negro were passing through the field where Helman and his hands were at work. Helman spoke to Acker, told him he would expect pay for the wood he had cut from his farm, whereupon Acker replied yes, I will pay you now, whereupon he and the Negro company with him, opened fire upon Helman's crowd with double barreled guns. W. T. Cooper was shot in the eye, hip, leg and hand; W. H. Owens was shot in the hand and side and Thomas Durham was shot in the hand, arm and leg. Helman received a shot but was not badly hurt. After the shooting both Negroes ran and are being pursued by a posse of armed men who will make it hot for them if overtaken.

Mr. Adam F. Cromer died suddenly at his home in this County, near Williamson, on the 27th ult., and was buried on the 1st inst. at Double Springs, in Fork Township, beside his first wife, who died Jan. 1st, 1894. He was a native of the upper Dutch Fork section of Newberry County, where he was born June 24th, 1824, and where he continued to live till 1875, when he removed to the Fork section of this County. In 1848 he married Miss Sarah C. Counts, an estimable lady of his native County. From this union four children survive—Messrs. James H., John S., Adam C., and Miss Lizzie Cromer, all residing in the Fork. During the war he served under Col. Ellison S. Keitt in this State and in North Carolina, and was a faithful soldier. Years ago Mr. Cromer joined the Lutheran Church and was the moving spirit in the erection of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in the Fork, which eventually, owing to inability to secure regular preaching, went bodily into the Methodist fold. In his new churchly relation Mr. Cromer labored zealously, and though he continued to love the Church of his first choice, one would have thought he had been a Methodist all his life. Some ten years ago he wedded Mrs. Gambrell, widow of the late Jackson (Gambrell) of this County, with whom he lived happily and who survives him. Mr. Cromer was thoroughly upright in all the relations of life, true to his family, his fellow-men, his State, his Church and his God, and when such men die the community has suffered a loss.

The news of the sad and untimely end of Mr. Perry F. Thornley, which occurred in this city early Saturday morning last, will be heard by his many friends and relatives with genuine sorrow. A young man just donning the toga of manhood, with rosy cheeks, a pleasing address and possessed of a personality that reflected morality, high breeding and gentility, could not, in full possession of all his mental faculties, rob himself of God-given life. The mantle of charity, at least, should fall over this last crowning act of his life and appeal for a suspension of judgment. The facts, as disclosed at the Coroner's inquest, are these: That he had only a few days previous attempted suicide in Washington, D. C. that he arrived in Anderson about midnight Friday night, having driven by private conveyance, presumably, from Liberty, engaged a room at the boarding house of F. M. Mangleburg, on South Main street, requesting that he be not disturbed till late in the day. When his room was entered he was found a corpse and near him was an empty pasteboard box bearing a morphine label of a Charlotte druggist. No papers were found on his person to indicate the cause of his rash act. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. Deceased was a son of Capt. J. H. Thornley, of Pickens, and a grandson of Mr. O. H. P. Fant, who, together with a large circle of friends and relatives in this city, have our sincerest sympathy and condolence. The funeral service was conducted from the residence of Mr. W. W. White Sunday afternoon, Rev. W. T. Capers reading the beautiful Episcopal service, and the remains laid to rest in Silverbrook Cemetery.

A Narrow Escape.
Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; coughed and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time, gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Hill, Orr Drug Co's Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00 Guaranteed or price refunded.
